

We Don't Tell

"How much money has old man Skinner in the bank?" recently asked a man. "My dear sir," we replied, "we are not permitted to answer such a question."

Certainly not. Every customer's business with this bank is strictly confidential. No telling goes. We don't tell Smith Jones' business and we don't tell Jones Smith's business. We want it distinctly understood that every transaction which takes place in this bank is known only to those concerned and no information regarding any person's affairs is made public.

The many friends of Rev. Fielding Marvin in this city will be grieved to learn that his condition is very serious. As we stated in our last issue, he is now in a hospital in St. Louis, and his trouble is cancer of the tongue. The surgeons say the only chance for even temporary relief is to remove the member, but we understand this will not be done. Palmyra Spectator.

DEMOCRATIC PROMISES TO FARMERS FULFILLED

Benefits Under Wilson Set Forth in Official Pamphlet.

The Democratic platform of 1912 made this promise to the farmers of America:

"Of equal importance with the question of currency reform is the question of rural credits or agricultural finance. Therefore we recommend that an investigation of agricultural credit societies in foreign countries be made, so that it may be ascertained whether a system of rural credits may be devised suitable to conditions in the United States; and we also favor legislation permitting national banks to loan a reasonable proportion of their funds on real estate security. We recognize the value of vocational education, and urge Federal appropriations for such training and extension teaching in agriculture in cooperation with the several states."

These pledges, with many other services to the farmer, have been completely fulfilled in the legislation of the present Administration. The record of Democratic Performance is offered in comparison with the Republican record of broken promises to the farmer, in an attractive pamphlet issued by the Democratic National Committee. Copies have been furnished to every Democratic State Committee for free distribution.

How Labor Will Vote

"Democrats say Wilson will get the labor vote because of his legislative record. Republicans say labor never votes solidly, and that it will split up for Wilson, Hughes or Benson. That's one of the problems of the election—will labor see that organized capital is back of Hughes, and then get back of Wilson? Or will labor split three ways while capital is voting one way? And spending its money one way too. Reports from New York say the Hughes' campaign fund will make the Hanna-McKinley fund of 1896 look like a piker."—From Chicago Day Book.
